1. MISSION Your mission is to connect aspiring Christian writers with the School of Kingdom Writers. They'll receive training and support so they can step into the calling the Lord has placed on their lives.

Five high priority objectives follow. Complete objectives at your discretion, as local conditions warrant. Inform MISSION CONTACT of success and obstacles for further instruction and commendation. Take these objectives one at a time and have fun with it!

Obj. 1. Like and share weekly recruiting posts. You have the power to make the algorithm work for us. Look for new posts on Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram. Give them a like and a share when you see them! Feel free to leave comments.

Obj. 2. Post on social media. Could you share the link with your friends on social media? You never know who you're connected to, and our next student could be among your friends! Try making a regular post or do a story.

Obj. 3. Connect with church. One of our future students may be in your church. Will you pass the link along to your pastor, administrator, or youth leader? All you have to say is, "I follow this ministry and I think it's a really cool opportunity. Do you know anyone in our church who might be interested?"

Obj. 4. Connect with a writer. Young or old, serious or dabbler, aspiring or accomplished—it really doesn't matter. Just send them a message. You can even copy this message word for word, "Hey, I know that you're a writer, and I just wanted to share this ministry with you. They do all kinds of writerly things, and I thought you might want to check it out and share it with some of the writers you know. Even if it's not for you, I thought you might know someone who would really get a lot out of it."

Obj. 5. Pray - Ask the Lord to break through barriers and fill the right aspiring writers with the courage to apply.

(a) "What other nation is so great as to have their gods near them the way the LORD our God is near us whenever we pray to him?" DEUTERONOMY 4:7

(b) "If you abide in me and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it shall be done for you." JOHN 15:7

2. SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION

A. You don't have to complete all of these objectives. Push yourself and take risks. How many of these objectives are easy for you? Could you push and do one more?

B. Together, we are conquering darkness and declaring a new generation of media for our children and grandchildren. Any army is rising up!

C. Please reach out to Brad and let us know how it goes (Brad@SOKW.org). Which objectives did you complete and what results did you see? We'd love to celebrate with you and support you in any way we can!

3. YOU'RE A WARRIOR!

A. By completing these objectives you're not just helping the School of Kingdom Writers, you're declaring the goodness of God over our media. You're standing up and saying that it's time for change.

B. The darkness trembles when believers raise their voices!

C. Thank you for being a part of this mission! Thank you for taking time out of your busy schedule and lending your name and reputation to this movement. You are part of a great team of Kingdom warriors, and we're so happy to stand on the front lines with you.
